

President Fillmore's Cousin a Distinguished Clergyman

Rev. Corydon Millard, who is a first cousin of the late President Fillmore, and a prominent clergyman, having served as chaplain of the Fourth U. S. Heavy Artillery, has just returned to Milwaukee from an extended trip abroad, during which he did valuable missionary work. He says that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is the best tonic for old age and declining years.

REV. CORYDON MILLARD.

Chaplain Millard is very proud of letters received by him from such well-known statesmen as Ex-Governor E. W. Scofield, of Wisconsin; the late Hon. John Sherman, Secretary of State under President McKinley, and the Hon. W. S. Aldrich, late Member of Congress from Minnesota.

In a letter of introduction given to Chaplain Millard before he started on his missionary tour to Japan, Ex-Governor Scofield says: "I am pleased to certify that Rev. Corydon Millard, of Milwaukee, Wis., is a gentleman of high character and standing in the community in which he resides, and I commend him to the kind offices of American Ministers and Consuls and of all whom he may meet."

"In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Executive Privy Seal to be affixed. Done at the Capitol, in the City of Madison, this First day of August, A. D., 1898."

Chaplain Millard is a firm believer in Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as the best tonic stimulant, and uses it regularly as prescribed. In a recent letter to the company he wrote: "I have used your Malt Whiskey and find it to be the best tonic for old age and declining years. I am 88 years of age, and my extreme old age naturally has caused me to suffer great weakness and debility. When I found myself growing weak I insisted upon two or three spoonfuls of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey each day. My family physician said: 'In your old age you need a stimulant,' and I replied, 'Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is sufficient,' and I must say it has proved a great tonic and stimulant. It has strengthened my system and makes me feel younger. I will always recommend it to anyone who is run down and weak, either from disease or old age. When you visit the city of Milwaukee be sure to come and see me."

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. It strengthens and sustains the system; is a promoter of health and longevity; makes the old young and keeps the young strong.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It is the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold in sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Price $1.50. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Illustrated medical booklet and doctor's advice free. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

A Simple Cough Cure Home-Made

Here is a simple recipe that is a good thing to cut out and paste in your scrap book. It will make one pint of the most effective cold and cough remedy that any physician could give you. Here it is:

Granulated Sugar Syrup, 1½ oz.
Pinex 2½ oz.

The Syrup is made by heating and stirring Granulated Sugar and Water. The 2½ oz. of Pinex may be had of any good druggist at a cost of 50 cents. Mix in a pint bottle. Shake well, and take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours as required.

Pinex might be called the concentrated ozone of the Norwegian pine forests, famous for centuries in curing consumption, asthma and kindred membrane diseases. It is, as a matter of fact, the purest and most concentrated form of compound extract of Norway white pine tar. There are many pine tar or pine oil preparations, but none of these are to be compared with the pure Pinex itself. All druggists have it or can get it easily if requested to do so.

Mr. Tribby, who is about 70 years old, left Mr. Vernon a week ago last Saturday in a buggy for his farm in northern Indiana, a distance of about 200 miles. He had the buggy fixed up with a storm front and an oil stove, making quite a snug conveyance. It took him eight days to make the trip. Mrs. Tribby will follow her husband in about two weeks and they will make their home there.

GEO. MOORE SENTENCED TO PENITENTIARY

GIVEN A COMPARATIVELY LIGHT SENTENCE UPON HIS PLEADING GUILTY.

Assured the Court That He Would Yet Mend His Ways and Become a Man.

In the case of the State of Ohio vs. George Moore, indicted for shooting with intent to wound, which was on the calendar for trial Tuesday, the defendant entered a plea of guilty and threw himself on the mercy of the court. Counsel on both sides of the case made a full statement of the facts, from which it appeared that while Moore's record was bad enough that the testimony against him on this indictment was rather uncertain. In fact the prosecutor stated that he felt that the case was not a strong one against the defendant. Judge Seward in passing sentence on the defendant, said that while he knew that Moore's record was a bad one, yet the court felt that on account of his youth there was a hope that he might mend his ways, redeem himself and become to some extent a useful citizen. That in view of the fact that he had pleaded guilty under the circumstances he was disposed to fix a mild sentence which was that he be sentenced to the penitentiary for 18 months. Moore expressed to the court his determination to make a man of himself yet.

Judgement for Car Company.

In the case of the Hann Sand Box Company vs. the Jewett Car Company of this city, the matter was submitted to the court Tuesday on an agreed statement of facts. A shipment from the plaintiff to the defendant a few days before the Newark Savings bank failed, was paid for by the defendant paying a draft attached to a bill of lading by which the goods were shipped, and mailed a draft to the plaintiff on a New York bank for the payment. This reached the New York bank after the failure of the bank and it declined to pay the draft. The question of law submitted was for which party was the Savings bank agent in sending the draft, and which party should bear the loss. The court held that the plaintiff was the loser for the reason that the plaintiff had accepted the dividends paid by the Savings bank on the amount of the draft, and had elected the bank as its creditor and the court gave judgment for the defendant. THE CHESAPEAKE FLAG.

THE CHESAPEAKE FLAG

London, Feb. 4.—Exciting incidents were witnessed at Debenham & Storr's auction room when the flag of the American frigate Chesapeake, captured by the British in 1813, was put up for sale. The room was crowded. A bidder, believed to be an American, made the first offer, with the remark, "I guess I'll give 20 pounds for it." His guess, however, was far out, for in a few minutes the bidding reached 250 pounds amid loud cheering and went on to 400 pounds.

Mr. R. W. Partridge, a dealer, was one of the keenest participants in the fight, the other champions including present in court Tuesday was so manifestly suffering with the grip that the court adjourned the trial of criminal cases to Thursday.

The case of the State of Ohio vs. Eber Watson was advanced to Monday, February 10.

AMUSEMENTS

HUMAN HEARTS.

Any play that teaches a great moral lesson is bound to do good to a community. Some of the greatest sermons ever preached against evil deeds and associations are embodied in the plays of the stage. The lesson of life is presented to the listener in a way that makes an impression on the mind and gives him food for thought. While the spectator is listening to the text of the play, his visual sense is being attracted by seeing the scenes enacted before his eyes, that are being described in the words to which he is listening.

In such a play as "Human Hearts" which will be shown at the Auditorium tonight the contrast between virtue and vice is sharply drawn. The author has not mined matters in drawing his characters, and as the incidents of the play are based on real occurrences, he has not had to draw upon his imagination to invent a motive for "Human Hearts."

A UNIQUE PLAY.

It may seem strange to speak of "The Man of the Hour" as a play of laughter, in view of the seriousness with which it has been treated by the leading magazines, and in view of the interest taken in it by men at the head of great affairs. But wonder in the matter will cease when it is recalled that its author, George Broadhurst, wrote the two great successes of American farce, "What Happened to Jones" and "Why Smith Left Home." This new play of his is funnier than either, yet it is regarded by critics as the best play of real American life yet written.

"The Man of the Hour" will be acted here for the first time in the Auditorium next Friday night.

"MRS. TEMPLE'S TELEGRAM."
"Mrs. Temple's Telegram" will be the attraction at the Auditorium on Saturday afternoon and night, Feb. 8. This farce is clean, clever, and always brimming with mirth and funny situations. It is said to be without doubt the most emphatic comedy success of recent years. Sparkling, intricate and as clean as a red whi-

Mr. Guy Laking, King Edward's armorer.

A pause followed Mr. Partridge's 400 pound offer, and then the battle was resumed with renewed energy, the price increasing by fifties until 500 pounds was reached. Mr. Partridge waved his stick and the auctioneer took the hint for another 50 pound raise.

One of England's representatives, in response to cries of "Don't let it go out of the country, made a tentative offer of £25 pounds, which, however, Mr. Partridge caught smilingly, and the hammer fell on his final bid of £30 pounds (£150).

file, this uproariously funny comedy has won the endorsement of press and public wherever it has been produced. Lines with a snap and flow in them of actual wit and uninterupted ripples of rich humor, excellent character drawing and refreshing satire, makes up the sum of the advantages of "Mrs. Temple's Telegram." The same elaborate production will be seen here as presented on all previous successful engagements.

ORPHIUM THEATER.

Pleased and large audiences witnessed the opening performances of this week's bill at the Orphium, and all voted it one of the best of the season. The Wheelers, comedy jugglers are the head liners. They introduced a band of comic supplement fame. Wheeler starts the fun the minute his act goes on by riding onto the stage on a cycle barely large enough to carry a six year old comfortably. Wheeler is assisted by his wife.

Will H. Fields introduces the mayor of the Ghetto in Hebrew stories from life. Mr. Fields is one of the best Hebrew characters on the stage and will undoubtedly prove a great card.

Howell and Webster in a refined singing and talking act are very good and were forced to respond to encores.

the hearts of all, and established the fact that they are real musicians. The illustrated song is very pretty, and the moving picture is "Poor but Proud."

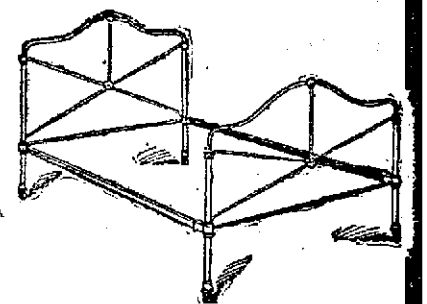

Judging from this excellent bill, the Orphium should do capacity business this week.

WIDOWS' PENSIONS

TO BE SETTLED AT $12 PER MONTH

Congressman Ashbrook Will be Rejoiced Because Many Worthy Cases Will be Properly Adjusted.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Under a suspension of the rules, the House yesterday took up the Sulloway bill granting a flat pension of $12 per month to all widows of honorably discharged soldiers. Its provisions were explained by its author, who said it involved an additional expenditure of $12,741,000.

Amid loud applause the bill was passed without division and with only one voice in opposition. It was a matter of special note that the attendance of members was the largest since the opening day.

The passage of the bill is of special gratification to Congressman Ashbrook of the 17th Ohio district, who has spent much time and effort in trying to secure equitable pensions for worthy widows of veterans in his district who could not get proper pension allowances from the department. Mr. Ashbrook's only remedy in these cases was to accomplish the passage of special pension bills, which is a tedious and uncertain process.

This is the bill which gives every widow of a Mexican, Civil, Spanish or Indian war soldier a pension of $12 a month, provided she was married to the soldier prior to 1890.

THE CHRISTIAN ERA.

Invented by the Abbot Dionysius in the Year 525.

The Christian era, so called because it dates from the person of Christ, is now universally used by the nations of Europe and America, but five centuries elapsed before it was invented and five more before it was generally adopted.

In 525 the Roman abbot Dionysius began to count the years as incarnation Domini (from the incarnation of the Lord). The first year of his Dionysian era ran from Jan. 1 to Dec. 31 of the seventh hundred and fifty-fourth year of the city of Rome. He set Dec. 25 as the date of Jesus' birth, as according to church usage, incarnation means conception, not nativity. This method of computing time found great favor and was officially indorsed by Charlemagne.

In the tenth century it was widely accepted. In Spain, however, it did not displace the so-called Spanish era, beginning with the year 716 B. C., until the end of the fourteenth century. In Russia it was introduced by Peter the Great in 1700. The German emperor began the year at Dec. 25 until the latter part of the sixteenth century. France at Easter day until 1567. Jan. 1 was not fixed upon as New Year's day in Scotland until 1599 and in England 1752.

FIRST FOUR WEEKS

Sees Many Bills Introduced. But
Few Made Into Laws.

GOVERNOR IS IN A DILEMMA

If a County Option Bill Passes He Must Either Sign or Veto It, or Dodge It Altogether—Democratic Member of House Proposes That the Flag Should Float Over Court Houses—Grind of Legislative Mill.

Columbus, O., Feb. 4.—(Special).—During the first four weeks of the present session of the legislature, running through the month of January, 366 bills were introduced in the house and 147 were introduced in the senate. This does not take into account the number of resolutions offered, some of which are fully important as bills. The house has passed 38 of its bills and the senate has passed 27 of its bills but so far only five bills have reached the completed stage of passing both houses and being signed by the governor.

His recent utterance on the subject of the veto indicates that Governor Harris does not relish the responsibility he must assume, if some pending measures go through, of personal approval or disapproval. He can let a bill become a law by default, that is, by neither signing it nor vetoing it within 10 days after it is submitted to him, but even that is the kind of silence that gives consent.

It would not be fair to charge the governor with a desire to shirk responsibility. He says it is the duty

ISAIAH R. ROSE,
The Marietta Senator Who is Sponsor
of the County Option Bill.

of the legislature to enact laws, of the supreme court to interpret laws and of the governor to execute laws. The flurry created by the peculiar wording of the governor's remarks in his message about county option, however, shows that he would be far more comfortable if the legislature would spare him the predicament of having to exercise his choice between signing or vetoing such measures as the Rose county option bill, the Jones bill to make the Jones residential district law proof against "wet pockets," and others relating to the liquor traffic.

If the governor were to let all bills passed by the legislature become laws without his signature, which he could do, he could not escape responsibility for letting any bill become a law that he could have killed with the veto. He is so closely watched by the anti-saloon forces and the liquor interests that he can not favor one without offending the other. It is an embarrassing situation for a governor who expects to be a candidate even before the session of the legislature is over.

This will be a brief but busy week for the solons, because they want to adjourn from Thursday to Feb. 12 on account of the Republican primaries, Feb. 11. Big measures are on the calendar of both houses. Tuesday might be called an emergency day in the senate because both the Atwell resolution for the initiative and the referendum, the Rose county option bill and Senator Huffman's primary election bill are on Tuesday's senate calendar. The Huffman bill has right of way. It was on the calendar for last Friday, but was put over at the request of the author. It is not at all likely that a final vote will be reached on all of these measures. Tuesday afternoon, for each of them is certain to be the subject of protracted discussion. The side lobbies of the senate chamber reserved for the use of members and their families, state officers and other privileged persons, and the gallery, which is all too small for the general public, will be crowded in anticipation of the debate that is sure to be of more than ordinary interest on all three of these measures.

Senator Rose's county option bill is on the calendar ahead of Senator Atwell's resolution for submitting to a vote an initiative and referendum amendment to the state constitution. As the session for the day does not begin until 1 p. m., it is not possible at the time this is written to forecast what will happen to the Rose bill in the senate. Both sides are still confident, but neither side will divulge its real strength. Friends of the bill are said to be willing to accept one amendment to be made before it comes to a vote. It is expected, in case the bill is vetoed, that there will be a large number of county option elections held as soon as the necessary routine can be got through with.

The Alkin tax year is practically the calendar year, and county auditors who keep the collection accounts object to interference with the tax in the middle of a period, on account of the muddling of their books that will ensue if the saloons are stopped. It is possible, therefore, that there will be a provision that no county voted dry before July 1 shall be dry until that date, this year. That is to say, the saloons will not close at the result of a dry vote until that date, which is the end of a semi-annual period for Alkin tax settlements.

Opposition to the initiative and referendum resolution is spreading among the Republican senators who belong to the Taft faction. Evidently they fear that it would be an embarrassing issue to Secretary Taft in the campaign if he should be nominated for president, because of his speeches in Oklahoma last year against the Oklahoma constitution. Besides the changes in the resolution mentioned in preceding correspondence, the resolution was also changed to say that every question submitted to the electors under the constitutional amendment must be printed on a ballot separate from the regular ticket. When the resolution comes up for final action friends of the initiative and referendum will endeavor to have the 60 per cent provision and that for separate ballots defeated. It is contended that to print the propositions on separate ballots will give the election officers, if they happen to be so disposed, opportunity to work against any question submitted by neglecting to hand out the separate ballots. Senator West is expected to lead the opposition on the Republican side.

Arguments were presented today before the senate committee on labor on the Metzgar bill, which has already passed in the house, defining the liabilities of railroads for personal injuries sustained by employees. Attorneys representing practically all the important railway systems entering Ohio were present to oppose the bill, while Mr. Metzgar appeared before the committee in support of his measure. Further time will be given to the bill before the committee makes its report.

There will be an open hearing Tuesday evening by the committee having under consideration Senator Drake's bill relative to the manufacture, adulteration and sale of commercial fertilizers. In view of the recent charges of improper methods and attempts to bribe public officials, made against one fertilizer company, it is probable there will be some interesting discussion. The report of the state board of agriculture showing that 29 other companies also handled fertilizer below the required standard gives additional importance to this measure.

Tuesday evening the senate committee on labor will hear arguments on the Reynolds child labor bill, which has passed the house. It is expected that delegations of women from Columbus, Cleveland, Toledo, Cincinnati and other cities will be present, and some of them, including the wife of Senator Howe of Cleveland, will address the committee in the interests of the bill.

The house committee on railroads and telegraph set aside Tuesday evening for a hearing on telephone bills. In addition to three bills relating to telephone services previously introduced by Eley of Ashland, Alkin of Logan and Hillenclark of Lucas, a bill by Stewart of Clark, like Mr. Eley's bill, proposes to place the entire telephone business of the state under the railroad commission, with plenary powers. Schedules of rates must be filed with the commission and where these are determined to be unfair or unreasonable the commission may fix new rates. All long distance charges shall be by a per mile air-line charge, which shall be uniform throughout the state, and interchange rates are subject to revision by the commission. No rates are permitted. When any council refuses for 100 days to agree upon the terms and conditions under which a company shall use the streets of a city the commission may fix such terms and conditions.

Representative Eley of Ashland county introduced the first bill of the session. It provides that county commissioners shall have the United States flag displayed on court houses daily from sunrise to sunset. The flag floats every day from the capitol of the nation and from the capitol of the state. The court house is the capitol building of the county, and it falls to the lot of a Democrat to propose that our country's flag should be run up daily on the 88 court houses of Ohio. It is fully as important, if not more so, that the flag should float every day from the capitol of the county as it is to have it float from every public school during school days.

Since the federal rate law cutting off passes and the Ohio 2-cent fare law went into effect, railroads in Ohio have withdrawn their time tables, except from such papers as publish them gratis. Clark Doty of the house missed a train one day last week because of a change in time. When he got back to the state house he wrote a bill, and this is the way it reads: "That every railroad company operating a railroad in the state of Ohio shall publish and advertise in each daily newspaper in each city through which said railroad is operated the time of arrival and leaving of each first-class passenger train that arrives in or leaves the principal passenger station in such city." Representative Letch of Lorain introduced the bill for him.

TO BE SETTLED AT $12 PER MONTHCongressman Ashbrook Will be Rejoined Because Many Worthy Cases Will be Properly
Adjusted.Washington, Feb. 4.—Under a suspension of the rules, the House yesterday took up the Sulloway bill granting a flat pension of $12 per month to all widows of honorably discharged soldiers. Its provisions were explained by its author, who said it involved an additional expenditure of $12,741,000.Amid loud applause the bill was passed without division and with only one voice in opposition. It was a matter of special note that the attendance of members was the largest since the opening day.The passage of the bill is of special gratification to Congressman Ash-brook of the 17th Ohio district, who has spent much time and effort in trying to secure equitable pensions for worthy widows of veterans in his district who could not get proper pension allowances from the department.
Mr. Ashbrook's only remedy in these cases was to accomplish the passage of special pension bills, which is a tedious and uncertain process.This is the bill which gives every widow of a Mexican, Civil, Spanish or Indian war soldier a pension of $12 a month, provided she was married to the soldier prior to 1890.

THE CHRISTIAN ERA.

Invented by the Abbot Dionysius in the Year 525.The Christian era, so called because it dates from the person of Christ, is now universally used by the nations of Europe and America, but five centuries elapsed before it was invented and five more before it was generally adopted.In 525 the Roman abbot Dionysius began to count the years ab incarnatione Domini (from the incarnation of the Lord). The first year of his Dionysonian era ran from Jan. 1 to Dec. 31 of the seven hundred and fifty-fourth year of the city of Rome. He set Dec.
25 as the date of Jesus' birth, as, according to church usage, incarnation means conception, not nativity. This method of computing time found great favor and was officially indorsed by Charlemagne.In the tenth century it was widely accepted. In Spain, however, it did not displace the so called Spanish era, beginning with the year 716 B. C., until the end of the fourteenth century.
In Russia it was introduced by Peter the Great in 1700. The German emperor began the year at Dec. 25 until the latter part of the sixteenth century. France at Easter day until 1567.
Jan. 1 was not fixed upon as New Year's day in Scotland until 1559 and in England 1752.

FIRST FOUR WEEKS

Sees Many Bills Introduced. But
Few Made Into Laws.

GOVERNOR IS IN A DILEMMA

If a County Option Bill Passes He Must Either Sign or Veto It, or Dodge It Altogether—Democratic Member of House Proposes That the Flag Should Float Over Court Houses—Grind of Legislative Mill.Columbus, O., Feb. 4.—(Special).— During the first four weeks of the present session of the legislature, running through the month of January, 366 bills were introduced in the house and 147 were introduced in the senate. This does not take into account the number of resolutions offered, some of which are fully important as bills. The house has passed 38 of its bills and the senate has passed 27 of its bills, but so far only five bills have reached the completed stage of passing both houses and being signed by the governor.His recent utterance on the subject of the veto indicates that Governor Harris does not relish the responsibility he must assume, if some pending measures go through, of personal approval or disapproval. He can let a bill become a law by default, that is, by neither signing it nor vetoing it within 10 days after it is submitted to him, but even that is the kind of silence that gives consent.It would not be fair to charge the governor with a desire to shirk responsibility. He says it is the dutyISAIAH R. ROSE,
The Marietta Senator Who Is Sponsor of the County Option Bill.of the legislature to enact laws, of the supreme court to interpret laws, and of the governor to execute laws. The duty created by the peculiar wording of the governor's remarks in his message about county option, however, shows that he would be far more comfortable if the legislature would spare him the predicament of having to exercise his choice between signing or vetoing such measures as the Rose county option bill, the Jones bill to make the Jones residential district law proof against "wet pockets," and others relating to the liquor traffic.If the governor were to let all bills passed by the legislature become laws without his signature, which he could do, he could not escape responsibility for letting any bill become a law that he could have killed with the veto. He is so closely watched by the anti-saloon forces and the liquor interests that he can not favor one without offending the other. It is an embarrassing situation for a governor who expects to be a candidate even before the session of the legislature is over.This will be a brief but busy week for the solons, because they want to adjourn from Thursday to Feb. 12 on account of the Republican primaries, Feb. 11. Big measures are on the calendar of both houses. Tuesday might be called an emergency day in the senate because both the Atwell resolution for the initiative and the referendum, the Rose county option bill and Senator Huffman's primary election bill are on Tuesday's senate calendar. The Huffman bill has right of way. It was on the calendar for last Friday, but was not over at the request of the author. It is not at all likely that a final vote will be reached on all of these measures. Tuesday afternoon, for each of them is certain to be the subject of protracted discussion. The side lobbies of the senate chamber reserved for the use of members and their families, state officers and other privileged persons, and the gallery, which is all too small for the general public, will be crowded in anticipation of the debate that is sure to be of more than ordinary interest on all three of these measures.Senator Rose's county option bill is on the calendar ahead of Senator Atwell's resolution for substituting to a vote an initiative and referendum amendment to the state constitution.
As the session for the day does not begin until 1 p. m. it is not possible at the time this is written to forecast what will happen to the Rose bill in the senate. Both sides are still confident, but neither side will divulge its real strength. Friends of the bill are said to be willing to accept one amendment to be made before it comes to a vote. It is expected, in case the bill passes, that there will be a large number of county option elections held as soon as the necessary routine can be got through with.The Aikin tax year is practically the calendar year, and county auditors who keep the collection accounts object to interference with the tax in the middle of a period, on account of the muddling of their books that will ensue if the saloons are stopped. It is possible, therefore, that there will be a provision that no county voted dry before July 1 shall be dry until that date, this year. That is to say, the saloons will not close as the result of a dry vote until that date, which is the end of a semi-annual period for Aikin tax settlements.Opposition to the initiative and referendum resolution is spreading among the Republican senators who belong to the Taft faction. Evidently they fear that it would be an embarrassing issue to Secretary Taft in the campaign if he should be nominated for president, because of his speeches in Oklahoma last year against the Oklahoma constitution.
Besides the changes in the resolution mentioned in preceding correspondence, the resolution was also changed to say that every question submitted to the electors under the constitutional amendment must be printed on a ballot separate from the regular ticket.
When the resolution comes up for final action friends of the initiative and referendum will endeavor to have the 60 per cent provision and that for separate ballots defeated. It is contended that to print the propositions on separate ballots will give the election officers, if they happen to be so disposed, opportunity to work against any question submitted by neglecting to hand out the separate ballots. Senator West is expected to lead the opposition on the Republican side.Arguments were presented today before the senate committee on labor
before the senate committee on labor
on the Metzgar bill, which has already passed in the house, defining the liabilities of railroads for personal injuries sustained by employees. Attorneys representing practically all the important railway systems entering Ohio were present to oppose the bill, while Mr. Metzgar appeared before the committee in support of his measure. Further time will be given to the bill before the committee makes its report.There will be an open hearing Tuesday evening by the committee having under consideration Senator Drake's bill relative to the manufacture, adulteration and sale of commercial fertilizers. In view of the recent charges of improper methods and attempts to bribe public officials, made against one fertilizer company, it is probable there will be some interesting discussion. The report of the state board of agriculture showing that 29 other companies also handled fertilizer below the required standard gives additional importance to this measure.Tuesday evening the senate committee on labor will hear arguments on the Reynolds child labor bill, which has passed the house. It is expected that delegations of women from Columbus, Cleveland, Toledo, Cincinnati and other cities will be present, and some of them, including the wife of Senator Howe of Cleveland, will address the committee in the interests of the bill.The house committee on railroads and telegraph set aside Tuesday evening for a hearing on telephone bills.
In addition to three bills relating to telephone service previously introduced by Eley of Ashland, Aikin of Logan and Hillecamp of Lucas, a bill by Stewart of Clark, like Mr. Eley's bill, proposes to place the entire telephone business of the state under the railroad commission, with plenary powers. Schedules of rates must be filed with the commission and where these are determined to be unfair or unreasonable the commission may fix new rates. All long distance charges shall be by a per mile air-line charge, which shall be uniform throughout the state, and interchange rates are subject to revision by the commission. No rebates are permitted. When any council refuses for 100 days to agree upon the terms and conditions under which a company shall use the streets of a city the commission may fix such terms and conditions.Representative Eley of Ashland county introduced the first bill of the session. It provides that county commissioners shall have the United States flag displayed on court houses daily from sunrise to sunset. The flag floats every day from the capitol of the nation and from the capitol of the state. The court house is the capitol building of the county, and it falls to the lot of a Democrat to propose that our country's flag should be run up daily on the 85 court houses of Ohio. It is fully as important, if not more so, that the flag should float every day from the capitol of the county as it is to have it float from every public school during school days.Since the federal rate law cutting off passes and the Ohio 2-cent fare law went into effect, railroads in Ohio have withdrawn their time tables, except from such papers as publish them gratis. Clerk Doty of the house missed a train one day last week because of a change in time.
When he got back to the state house he wrote a bill, and this is the way it reads: "That every railroad company operating a railroad in the state of Ohio shall publish and advertise in each daily newspaper in each city through which said railroad is operated the time of arrival and leaving of each first-class passenger train that arrives in or leaves the principal passenger station in such city." Representative Lersch of Lorain introduced the bill for him.

SCHOOLS

ARE NOT IN SO CROWDED CON-DITION AS THEY WERE
LAST YEAR.But Special Legislation in Regard to Them Should be Radical in Its Very Nature and End.The schools in Newark are not as crowded as they were this time last year, yet extra teachers should be supplied in the West, Hudson, Woodside and Central buildings, according to the report of Superintendent Simmons made at the meeting of the board of education Monday night.The board was called to order at 7 o'clock with President Beggs, Secretary Keller and Messrs. Fulton, Haight, Christian, and Conrad present. After the usual routine of business had been transacted, the reading of the minutes of the preceding meeting and the allowing of bills, communications were read on different subjects.Only two firms, Bailey & Keesley of Newark, and G. W. Stall of Butler, bid on furnishing the slate blackboards for the new high school building. The bid of the first named firm on 3 1-2 foot boards was $19 1-2 and on 4 foot boards $29 1-2. Mr. Stall's bid was $20 for 3 1-2 foot boards and $24 on 4 foot boards. As his bid included the placing of the boards and the personal guarantee of the job, Mr.
Haight made a motion that his bid be accepted. The motion was seconded by Mr. Beggs, but after some argument the matter was referred to the building committee.The question as to whether plaster board should be used in the partitions of the high school annex then took up some time and ended by being tossed back to the building committee.
The plaster board, which will have little if any advantage over the plaster and lath at first proposed, will cost half a cent per foot more than the other, and will be in excess of the contract. The committee will report at their next meeting.The contract and bond in the sum of $900 was received and accepted from the Fitzpatrick & Hoeffner company of Columbus, who were awarded the plumbing contract. The bond was signed by the Fidelity and Surety company of Baltimore.A communication was received from the school board of Akron in which document they resolved against Senate bill No. 311 which provides for the universal use of text books of the same make throughout the state.
Messrs. Fulton and Keller placed themselves on record against the bill while Mr. Beggs and Mr. Simkins seemed to favor its passage. However nothing was done in the matter. The Summit capital board also named several other resolutions, some of which they favored and some that they didn't, but like the text book resolution nothing was done by the local board.The usual monthly financial statement was read by Mr. Keller and accepted. The report of Truant Officer Jones, in which report he showed that nine scholars were truant and ninety-two were absent was also received by the board. The ice on the canal is proving a great drawing card for the boys and some cases of truancy and absence can be traced to it, however.
Mr. Jones has made several trips to

ORIENTAL BANK AND ITS PRESIDENT.

ORIENTAL BANK, NO. 182 BROADWAY

New York, Feb. 4.—Following the suspension of the Merchants and Traders and the New Amsterdam National banks last occurred on the Oriental bank, a state institution at John street and Broadway, with a branch in the Bowery. The depositors formed in a line which grew in length as the day progressed.Clearing House members said that the matter of the $100,000 pledged by individual members of the Clearing House had not been settled during the day.
Ten or twelve banks participated in the movement to rescue the Oriental bank, pledging sums of from $50,000 to $100,000 toward a common pool.THE VALUE

The Advocate's Evening Story

A bridge which party was in progress in one of the fashionable houses of a large city. The games were for money, but as one may lose or win a large number of points at bridge a point was fixed at a few cents. There were two sets of tables. At one set the play was for money; at the other there was no stake. Guests were permitted to sit at the stake or no stake tables, as they pleased.

Nearly all the guests had arrived and selected their seats when a young man entered who took a chair opposite a young girl at one of the tables where there was no stake to be played for. On his left sat an elderly woman with a superior look; on his right, a middle aged man with a bald head, who seemed to regard the affair as a bore. The newcomer was delicately formed, strikingly handsome and with a winning voice and smile. The girl was what is called a Titian beauty—that is, with reddish golden hair and dark, liquid eyes. The young man was not known to any one at the table, but introductions in such cases are not required. He addressed the young girl modestly, yet confidently.

As the play went on it was evident that she was falling under the spell of the many pleasant things he said to her, the mystical voice in which he said them, the glances that shot from his eyes. Indeed, his whole personality was fascinating and plainly devoted to impressing her. Finally he suggested that a game without a stake was uninteresting and proposed that they have a small one to consist of but a cent a point. The opposing couple did not object, but the Titian girl demurred. She said she was a member of a church that prohibited both card playing and dancing. She had attended the party not knowing there were to be cards and had been persuaded to play only at the urgent request of the hostess, there being one vacant seat. The young man opposite her looked into her eyes with his, whereupon she took up the hand that lay before her, making no further objection.

From that moment the cards seemed bewitched. Whenever it came the turn of the Titian girl to play dummy she invariably played "without a trump," which in bridge whist counts twelve points for each trick above six. She usually won most of the tricks, often taking them all, making what is called a grand slam and counting a bonus. Besides, she and her partner always won the rub game, which gave them an extra hundred points. This was all the more remarkable since she had never played the game before. Occasionally her opponents would take up a good hand and "double," upon which she would "go back," which is the term for doubling the double. This doubling and redoubling would often go on till the original count had been multiplied by six.

SCHWEITZER COMPLIMENTED.

The St. Louis Sporting News of Tuesday contained a two column cut of Al Schweitzer, Newark's crack outfielder. The paper states that McAleer's recruit would go south with the team and that he undoubtedly would make good. The Sporting News says that Schweitzer is one of the fastest base runners in the business and any time an infielder fumbled the ball it was all over as the "Cheese man" was sure to beat it out to first.

CHANGE IN SCHEDULE.

A change has been made in Denison's basketball schedule as follows: The game with West Virginia university for February 26, will not be played. The return game with Ohio Wesleyan will be played at Delaware on February 26. A return game has been arranged with Western Reserve university to be played at Granville March 12.

CLASS GAMES.

The class games to be played next Friday afternoon will occur at 3:30

The only person at the table having ordinary hands was the young man who had suggested playing for a stake. But, while he took no important part in the game himself, the others seemed to feel that all this high play originated through some mysterious influence emanating from him. One by one the players at the other tables ceased to play and, noticing that there were large hands and a large count at the table where sat the girl with the Titian hair, stood watching the game. One of these onlookers by mental process counted the score and noticed that she and her partner were winners of a considerable sum.

Her partner sat facing a corner with his back to the room full of guests, so that his face could not be seen. The host, noticing persons about his table, advanced, looked at him and, not recognizing him, thought that he was some friend of his wife's to whom he had not been introduced. Then the hostess saw him and fancied he must be some friend of her husband's. Everybody was inquiring who he was, and no one could give information.

At last there arose a whispering and a murmuring. The Titian girl was known to most of the guests as an example of probity, but here she was playing for stakes that had been raised from a cent to a dollar, her eyes blazing and her cheeks red with excitement, her partner a man whom nobody knew and of whom everybody was suspicious. Another estimate was made of the winnings, and they were found to reach far up into the hundreds of dollars.

Presently a clergyman joined the onlookers. He was an Episcopalian, and a gold cross glistened on his breast. He stood directly opposite the young stranger, who, on looking up, espied the cross. In a twinkling every member of the card party seemed released from his enthralment. His opponents threw down their cards and arose, with an angry look. The Titian girl leaned back in her chair and covered her face with her hands. The strange young man paled, half arose and, muttering something about having promised to be at home early, slunk away through the crowded rooms. A moment later carriage wheels were heard rolling rapidly away.

The baldheaded opponent took up the score, figured up his loss, felt nervously in his pockets, whispered something to the host and left the room. His partner, exclaiming, "Well, I declare!" also stalked away. The Titian girl after sitting for a few moments with her face covered withdrew her hands and looked dazedly at those standing about, when her mother approached and, like a storm cloud, swept her away.

As for the stranger, he never appeared to claim his share of the winnings, nor was he heard of ever afterward.

OHIO STATE

Is Still a Six Club League—Hamilton and Richmond Out—May Get Two Other Towns.

Desiring to give the promoters every reasonable opportunity to get their baseball companies into shape President Quinn did not close last night the entry books of the Ohio State League.

Chillicothe and Portsmouth are the most probable towns at present, although the failure of the Indiana-Ohio league to organize yesterday may cause the Muncie people to renew their wish to come in along with Richmond.

Hamilton appears to be sliding backward. Without Hamilton, Richmond is not any too desirable.

It was said yesterday that chances are good for securing a substantial backing for the proposed clubs far down the Scioto valley. Something final from Portsmouth and Chillicothe will be known in the next few days.

ONE CERTAINTY

Some Newark People Fully Realize It Now.

When the back aches from kidney ills. When urinary troubles annoy you. There's a certain way to find relief. A sure way to be cured. Doan's Kidney Pills will do it. Newark people endorse this claim.

John W. Lippincott, 127 No. Eleventh street, Newark, Ohio, says: "I suffered from rheumatism for a long time and often had such severe pains across my joints that I could not move until the attacks passed off. There was a constant, dull aching across the small of my back and if I moved quickly or brought any strain on the muscles of my back, I was rewarded with sharp knife-like twinges throughout my body. My back became very weak and the least exertion completely exhausted me. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I procured a box at Crayton's drug store, started using them and they gave me prompt relief. I was so encouraged that I continued their use until entirely free from my trouble." (From statement given November 7, 1904.)

RESULTS TELL.

On Nov. 26, 1907, Mr. Lippincott said: "I cheerfully confirm my former recommendation of Doan's Kidney Pills as the benefit I obtained from their use has remained permanent. I have never been in better health than at the present time and owe my good condition to Doan's Kidney Pills."

City Council of Newark.

Gentlemen:—In addition I wish to report that in accordance with the verbal proposition made to the council at last meeting by William Allen Veach in regard to entering into a contract for such hydrants as the city may need, such a contract has been made and signed up by the Board of Public Service and Mr. Veach, and a voucher drawn on the Auditor for amount of back hydrant rental due to January 1, 1908.

BOARD OF PUBLIC SERVICE.

M. M. Taylor, President.

A petition was next read, signed by property owners, there being 212 signatures, asking that action be taken on constructing a tunnel on Second street underneath the P. C. C. & St. L. and B. and O. tracks according to the plans of the city engineer and which are on file in his office. It was referred to the street committee with instructions to report at the next regular meeting of council.

A protest was read from Nicholas Stasel who objects to the assessment of $65.21 against lot No. 767 in Eli's addition for the improvement of High street by paving and curbing. He claims that the lot does not abut on High street but does abut on an alley east of that street. The matter was referred to the law committee.

The committee to whom was referred the ordinance proposing that a public library be established in the city stated that they were not ready to report and the matter was passed until such time as they are ready to report to council.

The ordinance by Councilman Fulton asking for an issuance of $85,000 in bonds for the purpose of building a water works system was given its third reading and before being put to a vote nearly every councilman had something to say on the matter.

Councilman Kuster stated that at the last meeting of the council he had requested the members to go slow on the matter until a more thorough investigation could be made. Since that time the Board of Service had entered into a contract with the old Water Works company for the rental of 4" hydrants at the old price of $18 per hydrant, and the city could terminate the contract at any time they might desire. Under these conditions he thought it would be best for the city to take more time in the matter and try and have the plant completed as a whole and not by piece meal. Mr. Kuster said that he was just as anxious to see the plant completed as any citizen of the city but he wanted it done right. He thought that by the yearly bond issue plan a bad contract would be the result but that if the city would contract for it as a whole it might mean a saving of from $20,000 to $25,000. Another objection to the yearly bond issue plan was that it would take at least four years to complete it. We should leave it to the tax-payers, he said, as they have a right to vote their convictions. But you propose taking it out of their hands and deciding for them.

Councilman Irwin thought that the ordinance should be passed as he was sure that a bond ordinance left to the voters would be defeated, because, as he claimed, the people had become soured and would not support it.

Councilman Baker thought that the plant ought to be completed as soon as possible and was in favor of proceeding at once with the work. He thought perhaps it might be a good plan to let the Board of Public Service do the work.

Councilman Orr stated that he was in favor of proceeding with the work at once. He thought that if the bond issue would be put up to the people it might carry, but if it did, he was afraid of injunction proceedings.

Councilman Fulton said in support of the ordinance that he also was in favor of finishing the plant at once if it could be done, but was satisfied that it was an impossibility. He had a great deal of faith in the Board of Public Service and was sure that they could be relied upon to proceed with the work in a judicious manner. According to the figures presented by Mr. Fulton the $85,000 put in the ground would give the city 357 hydrants against 258. He stated that we would have a better fire protection than we now have. He claimed that public sentiment was in favor of the ordinance and that it ought to be passed. He had in his possession, he claimed, a letter from the State Board of Health which did not speak in very complimentary terms of the water furnished by the old Water Works company. He closed by stating that

The Charmed Sword And the Pretty Tylist

We now had $300,000 invested in the plant and that the city had already lost nearly $50,000 by delay and that we ought to proceed to pass the ordinance at once.

After a few remarks from Councilmen Kuster and Stare a vote was taken which resulted in Councilmen Baker, Flohr, Fulton, Irwin, Orr and Stare voting for the ordinance and Councilman Kuster opposing it.

A resolution was next introduced by Mr. Flohr and passed under a suspension of the rules asking that plans be prepared for a 15-inch sanitary and drainage sewer on Moul street from Fourth street to Wood avenue.

A resolution by Mr. Stare to sell the grounds which were to have been used by the water works plant, and known as the Hamill property, was referred to the finance committee.

Mr. Stare introduced a resolution authorizing the Board of Public Service to purchase a steam roller. As the resolution was not accompanied by the Auditor's certificate stating that there was sufficient funds on hand for the purpose nothing was done with it and it will probably come up again accompanied by the certificate.

A resolution was given its second reading declaring it necessary to appropriate lands for the opening of Bird avenue.

Another resolution was also given its second reading declaring it necessary to appropriate property for street purposes for the opening and widening of Smith street, better known as Arch street, after which council adjourned.

Mayor Signed Ordinance.

Mayor Atherton Tuesday morning signed the $85,000 bond ordinance passed by the City Council Monday evening, and after its legal publication it will become a law. The bonds are to be issued in denominations of $1,000, and are to be numbered from 1 to 85 inclusive, and will bear interest at the rate of 4 1-2 per cent per annum.

EYE INJURED LOSS OF SIGHT MAY BE RESULT

Fred Mavey, 30, residing at 50 Clinton street, suffered injuries while at work at the Ohio Bottle company's plant in North Newark Monday evening, which may result in total blindness.

Mavey, who has been employed by the company as a carpenter for several years, was driving a huge spike into a piece of timber when the hammer struck it slantwise and the spike flew into his face piercing the right eye ball. The man was hurried to the operating room of Dr. C. S. Morse, the eye surgeon, where he was given prompt attention. After treating and dressing the eye, Dr. Morse stated that although he did not think it had been totally destroyed, there was bare chance of saving the injured optic and that exceeding care would have to be taken to avoid total blindness in both members.

Mavey has a wife and one child.

Tonsiline Cures Sore Throat

The throat is one of the most delicate parts of the body. It is also one of the most important, and should be given the best possible care. The throat is the gateway to the body. The air we breathe, the food we eat, the liquids we drink, all pass through it. It is very easily affected by cold, strain, exposure, etc., and Sore Throat is therefore one of our most common ailments. Tonsiline, therefore, is also one of the most important.

Sore Throat is a very serious matter, for the whole system is in danger in consequence of it. Every Sore Throat patient is a candidate for Tonsiline, Quinay, Diphtheria and other serious or fatal diseases, all of which have been prevented by the timely use of Tonsiline. It taken in time a dose or two will do it. Tonsiline is made to cure throat diseases and nothing else. It is the one remedy for this purpose sold largely in the United States. Every user endorses it, every physician, knowing its virtues, commends it.

The one most important thing to remember about Tonsiline is the fact that it really does cure Sore Throat.

Factors of Safety

The human body is a wonderful machine, provided with muscular, nervous and mental energy far in excess of normal needs. In health, the organs and tissues can do double their usual amount of work without strain or friction, because they have stored energy to meet the extra demand.

When you feel "all tuckered out," these factors of safety are nearly exhausted and you need to resort to to renew the supply of energy, wherever it may be called for. Indigestion, loss of appetite, constipation, loss of sleep, nervousness, dryness of the skin, are warnings that the factor of safety in the stomach, liver, bowels or brain, is low, or nearing the danger point and needs to be replenished.

Beecham's Pills increase the supply of blood, strengthen the stomach, operate the bowels, feed the nerve cells, build tissue, and create a reserve only this week—until Friday night.

HEARTILY ENDORSE COOPER REMEDIES

Dealer and Patient at Hallowell, Maine, Make Statements Under Oath.

In connection with the intense interest manifested by the public at large in the theory of L. T. Cooper as to the human stomach being the source of nearly all ill health, the statements of Mr. W. D. Spaulding, of Hallowell, Me., one of the oldest and best-known druggists in that state, and of Mrs. Frederick Harvey, a well known nurse living in the same place, will be interesting to thousands of persons who are today suffering from ailments directly traceable to the stomach. The fact that these statements are made voluntarily, under oath, removes all element of doubt. The statements follow:

"HALLOWELL, MAINE, July 20, 1907.
"TO THE COOPER MEDICINE CO.,
"Dayton, Ohio.

"Gentlemen:—The policy at Spaulding's drug store is to gain the perfect confidence of the public by never recommending any medicine or treatment until its virtues have been fully established. The Cooper Remedies were to us an unknown quality, we were very skeptical of their medicinal value, and it was not until several of our customers had received such beneficial results from their use that we could no longer doubt their value that we consented to take the agency for the Cooper Remedies in this territory, heartily endorsing the same.

"Herewith we give the testimonial of a lady whose case came under our personal observation from her being a regular customer, and she says:—
"Gentlemen of the Cooper Medicine Co., Dayton Ohio: It is with pleasure I recommend your New Discovery medicine, of which I have taken the contents of three bottles, and can today eat anything without inconvenience to myself. For a number of years I had suffered intensely with severe headaches, sour stomach, indigestion, pains in my side, and complications which made it exceedingly hard for me to accomplish even my household work. Physicians had given me dozens of prescriptions, which failed to accomplish a cure or even relief. Your New Discovery medicine advertisement attracted my attention, and I purchased a bottle of the medicine, which I took according to directions and before it was half gone, I felt very much better; when I had taken the contents of two bottles I gained courage to eat many things which for years I had denied myself, and found they caused me no ill effects. Today, after having used three bottles of the New Discovery, I can eat anything and feel that I am a well woman once more, and therefore would advise anyone to take Cooper's New Discovery, for I feel sure it will cure them. Mrs. Frederick Harvey, Hallowell, Me.

"We endorse the above testimonial, under oath, as being correct.

"W. D. SPAULDING.

The Cooper remedies have proven eminently satisfactory wherever introduced. We will be pleased to explain their nature to anyone wishing to know about them. We are agents.

EARL CLAGGETT

Given Surprise Party on Birthday Anniversary—Four Generations of Family in Attendance.

One of the most enjoyable social events of the season was the surprise given on Mr. Earl Claggett, January 31, when a number of his friends and four generations of his relatives gathered at his pleasant country home to assist him in celebrating the day and to remind him of the fact that another mile stone in his life had been reached.

He had been deceived from his home until the dinner hour, when upon returning, instead of finding the table prepared for him and his small family, he found it fairly loaded with good things.

In the evening the young folks to the number of about 40 gathered and assisted in continuing the festivities with games and music.

Mr. Claggett was the recipient of many valuable presents, among them being a beautiful watch presented by his parents. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pound, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Claggett and children, Mary and Harold, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Toothman, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. POOL MATCH AT FORSYTHE'S TONIGHT

"Kid" Dawson and E. A. Pearce of Columbus, will begin their match game of 800 points at Forsythe's pool room tonight at 8 o'clock. Reserved seats have been provided for spectators and a small admission will be charged. Nelson Kibler, manager of the pool room, will have charge of the match. Two hundred points will be played each night until the match is won by one of the contestants.

Both of the above men are well known in sporting circles, Dawson having won the championship in Cincinnati last week by defeating the well known McCoy. Pearce is also known as one of the best shots in the state and lovers of the sport will have a treat seldom accorded them outside of the larger cities.

BIG FIRE RAGING

Chicago, Feb. 4.—Fire broke out this afternoon in the seven story office building of L. Wolf & Co. The fire was on the fifth floor and seemed to come from an explosion. At least fifty women came down the fire escapes from the seventh floor. Whether there are any others there cannot be determined definitely. If there are the chances of escape are slight, as the flames burst from the fifth and sixth floors and enveloped the fire escapes.

HELPFUL ADVICE

Of course there won't be much ground to go over when one washes one's hands. The big hat is going out, too. The latest will be something like an oyster party in full bloom, according to the models displayed.

But the dear girls are laboring hardest over the hair. It's the straight-legged walk, the walk of the double arch; the springy walk.

Hipless, springy-legged, high-collared, long-sleeved, small-bellied, short-skirted—this is man's "better half" for the present. She was not thusly yesterday. How do she do it?

In most cases we are obliged to judge the interior of a house and the class of its occupants by the exterior of the house and its surroundings. Did you ever notice a fairly good-looking house with cheap and unproportioned curtains at the windows? What was your opinion?

The proper curtains are so important as the proper curtains at the windows, not necessarily costly, but of the correct design to suit the architecture of the house and at the same time to harmonize with the interior furnishings. The Powers-Miller Co. are specialists in the drapery line and if you are furnishing or refurnishing your house it will pay you to visit their drapery department.

Paris mourns the loss of her great dressmaker, Pauline, as dead. The prettiest women of France and the landladies of the world may well weep for the great dressmaker is no longer with us to make us and to tell us the perfect types of elegance and distinction.

In Piquette a striking figure of today disappears and a great beauty of the past. The world of the dressmaker may have been an extraordinary beauty, but she will no longer be a part of the world.

Carnal Sisters, 15 West Church street, have a great deal of the hair for the hair, and if you are furnishing or refurnishing your house it will pay you to visit their drapery department.

This is essentially a color season. The only adjective that can properly be applied to the assortment of new materials is brilliant.

Go to Hanesberg's for a fine line of Hanesberg's are selling the best Simpson and American calicoes at 10c a yard.

For evening wear the Greek style of dress is gradually superseding the empire line, and the dress of the future will be the materials mostly employed.

The hair must, of course, be dressed to go with this classical style.

Have you read "Three Weeks"—the new book by Eleanor Glyn that is taking the country by storm? It is considered a little questionable by some people—but this very thing has seemingly added to its great popularity. You can get it at Norton's book store.

With Mrs. Nicholas Longworth and Miss Louise Foraker leading the fashion in raspberry-red gowns, no wonder this particular shade is enjoying a great popularity in Washington, not only for the gowns of every conceivable material, but for hats, evening cloaks, and various accessories to otherwise somber or colorless toilets.

The prettiest things seen yet is that hand-painted imported china in the window of Pratt & Co.'s jewelry store, 38 North Park. The dainty and apple-blossom patterns are exquisite.

When one considers the expense of just a woman's head these days—without taking any of the rest of the expense of the toilet into consideration, it's enough to make the man pause before he answers "yes" to that leap year proposal. There's braids, puffs, transformations, rats, pompadours, switches, before one reaches the other accessories like jeweled hairpins and tortoise shell combs—then to crown it all a stylish hat, and this must be topped off with one of those stunning new veils.

How do you like this one? These cloth top patent leather boots are going to be the thing. Nothing looks more dressy than a cloth top boot on a woman's foot. Think it over. All prices, all styles at Lincian's.

Once again the hair is waved and the curling tongs are being brought out. Luckily they don't have to be used much to get rusted. Any kind of addition to the hair is positively the latest. Cute little curls are beginning to be sold, and the puffs, which will slowly become passé.

Protect your horses and yourself when driving these days by having good blankets and lap robes. A splendid assortment of these can be seen at the Newark Hardware company, 23 West Main street, and at the low prices they are selling them, no one can afford to be without them.

A new thing in hair ornaments is a pair of long pronged hair pins with fancy jeweled horseshoe-shaped tops. These are thrust through each side of the inevitable braid at the back of the head. The handsome comb is also worn between the braid and puffs.

All threads at 5c. a spool at Hanesberg's.

Calling bus. cards and envelopes are the order of the day and now in Washington. Every woman and some men are making the rounds. While newcomers are flocking and such problems as how many cards to leave at the White House and does the vice president have a telephone, the winning way or senate day list, the veteran visitor strikes out, and in one afternoon scatters enough cards to supply a woman in any other American city for a season.

AMEND PRIMARY CALL.
Columbus, Feb. 4.—With the Foraker representatives abstaining from voting, the Republican State Central committee Monday amended the call for the state convention by giving permission to the counties that have not but one certified ticket for delegates to dispense with primaries and certify the delegates aforesaid as members of the convention.

Finger Nail Pen.
Miss Lizzie Martin, an eighteen-year-old Red Lion girl, has devised a finger nail pen, with which she does all her letter writing, says a York Daily Dispatch. The sign of an old quill pen gave Miss Martin the idea of allowing the nail of the index finger of her right hand to grow to a proper length. The nail was then trimmed to the shape of a pen and split. The girl declares that as fast as she writes, the new pen is a decided improvement over the old quill pen.

FEMININE TOPICS

Look and you will see what the new woman is obliged to do this season. First of all, the dear ones have been obliged to re-arrange their figures. They have become hipless, therefore hips have been good form heretofore.

Hour-glass shapes no longer roam the shopping districts. The time of their swiftness has passed.

Close upon the "hipless" came the short skirt vogue and the foot must be reformed, since the walking skirt, to be at all, must display the ankle. There isn't even room for corns in a shoe since the short skirt came in.

Now, torture upon torture, comes the new high collar. It huggeth, the double chin and snuggles under the ear, nudging away any stray gawling locks.

And still there's more to come. A vaunt all elbow sleeves, invention of much comfort and laundry economy. Sleeves now come down to the knuckles.

Cutting Ice at Sandusky.
The long expected freeze at Sandusky has arrived at last and the force at that point is cutting ice now. Over 500 cars have been stored in Sandusky for several weeks in anticipation of this ice harvest and business on the railroads running out of Sandusky is expected to take a big brace as soon as this ice begins moving.

IT SAVED MY LIFE—WRITES ECZEMA PATIENT.
Bed-ridden Sufferer Completely Cured by Use of D. D. D. Ex-ternal Wash.

One of the most remarkable Eczema cures recently credited to the well known D. D. D. Prescription has just been recorded in Chicago.

Mrs. E. Hegg, 1550 West Madison street, under date of December 9, 1907, writes as follows:

"I suffered three years with Weeping Eczema. It started with a little spot on my knees and spread fast over my whole body. I spent hundreds of dollars and went to every good doctor I heard of, but kept getting worse. Nothing would stop the awful itch and burning.

"I had to stay in bed from the middle of May to the middle of July. Then I tried D. D. D. Prescription. This is the 9th of December and I am entirely free from the terrible disease. D. D. D. saved my life.

"When I began this treatment, people were afraid of me I looked so terrible. My husband was the only one who would take care of me. D. D. D. stopped the itch at once so I could sleep, which I had not done before. Then I began to get better fast and now my skin is clear and white, not a spot anywhere."

Just a few drops of D. D. D. Prescription applied to the skin brings relief—nothing to swallow or drink. We vouch for D. D. D. Prescription, also the cleansing D. D. D. Soap. Frank D. MEN ENLIST

IN THE SERVICE OF THE UNITED STATES AT NEWARK RECRUITING STATION.

Office in Charge Re-enlisted at This Point as His Term Expired While Here.

"Applications are still coming in," said Recruiting Officer Beardslee of the United States army, who is at the Star hotel, "and the record for February may be as good as was December."

Several railroad men have decided to enter the service, and after they draw their pay on the 14th, they will enlist. Free board, clothing, food and medical attention look good to most men and they are taking advantage of the recruiting office being here to enlist.

Newark has been a good town for securing men, and many more will probably enlist under the stars and stripes before Mr. Beardslee leaves. So far only one man has enlisted in the cavalry and he is a man of good education and will study for promotion. He was sent to Des Moines, Ia., where he will join a cavalry regiment. Men can, however, enlist for any branch of the army, the infantry, artillery, cavalry, coast artillery hospital corps and the signal corps.

A man to enlist in the "horse" regiments, must be 5 feet 10 inches in height and must weigh less than 150 pounds. If the candidate happens to be particularly well built special arrangements may be made to enlist him in that branch. No man weighing under 125 or over 190 pounds will be considered. If a man wears glasses he can enlist only in the hospital corps.

Mr. Beardslee has served several enlistments himself and as his time has expired while in this city, he re-enlisted himself. He is an entertaining talker and his stories of army life are unusual and fascinating to the average civilian.

COMMITTEE IS INVITED HERE TO INSPECT CANAL

BOARD OF TRADE ASKS THE LEGISLATORS TO COME TO NEWARK.

Invitation is Endorsed by Mayor Atterton and the Board of Public Service.

The bill authorizing the abandonment of that part of the Ohio canal in Newark from Sixth street to the B. & O. station has been referred to the committee on public works in the State Legislature and now the Newark Board of Trade is endeavoring to secure favorable action in the committee. The following is a copy of a letter just sent to Columbus:

Hon. Geo. Little, Chairman of Committee on Public Works, Columbus, Ohio:

Dear Sir—We beg to call your attention to H. B. 935, introduced by Mr. Howard, and referred to your committee.

This bill is to permit the city of Newark to use and occupy as a street a part of the bed of the Ohio canal within this city.

We want to assure you that there is no real estate or any other kind of a deal contemplated. It is purely a measure for the benefit of all our people. As you know the canal has not been in use for years, is a dumping place for all kinds of filth, and is a constant menace to health.

It is an unsightly thing, and the first thing seen by strangers coming into our otherwise beautiful city.

Mr. Howard has advised us that your committee would give us a hearing on this bill, but we feel that you would understand the situation so much better if you could see the surroundings.

On behalf of the Newark Board of Trade, the city officials, and in fact all the citizens of Newark, we are requested to invite you, and the other members of the committee, to visit Newark at any time that will suit your convenience.

Mr. Howard has suggested that you could perhaps come over in the morning, returning in time for the daily session, as it would require but about three hours for you to visit us and return.

If you can do us this great favor, we will be glad to have a car in waiting for you in Columbus, at any hour and on any date you may designate, to bring you to Newark, and return you promptly.

We feel sure you would enjoy the outing, and that after seeing conditions here that you would favorably report this bill.

Very truly yours,

THE NEWARK BOARD OF TRADE.

J. M. Mayhew, Secretary.

I heartily approve of the contents of the above letter, and personally know the abandonment of the canal would be a great sanitary benefit to the people of Newark.

H. ATHERTON, Mayor.

I heartily approve the foregoing letter, as it will be a great advantage to the beauty and health of our city.

M. M. TAYLOR.

Pres. Board of Public Service.

BIRD WEEK AT EDMISTON'S

The great interest manifested in The Birds of Ohio now on exhibition at Edmiston's book store is growing daily. A great many people have been in all already to see the birds and expressed their great admiration and gratification over the splendid display being made and the remarkable terms on which the birds can now be secured. There is no subject which is of more interest than the study of our Ohio Birds and there is no work which is a supreme source of authority on this subject that can be compared with The Birds of Ohio, now on exhibition at Edmiston's. Remember it has identification keys; a life story of every bird in the state, three hundred and twenty (320) in all; description of all the points about each bird to enable one to recognize them; eighty (80) full page colored plates showing the birds in natural colors; two hundred and sixteen (216) original photographs, taken by Ohio artists on purpose for this work; migration tables showing the arrival and departure as recorded for the last fifteen years of all the birds through the state. As previously stated over $12,000 has been expended on this work. Until Friday night, the 1st of Newark and vicinity had an opportunity to secure this great work at wholesale prices—a reduction of 40 per cent from the regular prices being made to introduce the Ohio Nature Books to Newark people. It is an opportunity that will not come again, and in order to be of any advantage must be seized immediately. Come in and see the birds and learn about them and what a mere trifle it costs to secure this magnificent production of the greatest authorities on Birds in the State of Ohio. (More about the birds tomorrow.)

EARLIER NEWARK

(By Col. Charles H. Kibler)

In 1860, and before, there were not many amusements. People did not then seem to live to be amused. But the young people had some amusements. In winter, when there was snow, there were the sleigh rides, and sleighing parties, who crowded into wagon-beds, filled with straw, upon sleds. I remember one of these pleasure rides. The cold was below zero and the wind very fresh. It was not enchanting. We visited on invitation a house in the country. The hosts, though on hospitality bent, gave us CANDY and COLD WATER for refreshments. We had hoped, in our chilled condition, for a cup of coffee and some bread and butter. There was skating on the canal, but I do not remember that the girls often participated. In the spring, and often before the mud dried, the boys played marbles. Later in the season, came the game called town ball, said to be the basis of the now popular baseball, and the game called "bull-pen."

Another pastime was hunting. Squirrels and rabbits were abundant. There were some quail, wild turkeys and the drumming pheasants. The doves were not then regarded as a game bird. The streams were full of fish, such as black bass, sunfish, suckers, red-horse, and chubbs. The gentle art was not neglected by men and boys.

The weddings, generally, were quiet affairs. The custom of giving presents to the bride did not exist, at least in the present fashion. The bride then, was supposed to be as good, perhaps a little better, than the groom, but was not treated as if she were, for a little while at least, an angel.

In the great political campaigns there were great excitement and some acrimony. It was singular that good-natured citizens who were not office-seekers, would work themselves into a state of excitement over such questions as the tariff, hard money, and foreign relations. Two men of opposite politics could hardly meet on the streets without a fierce discussion, sometimes ending in personal encounters. In the Presidential campaigns, and in the important state campaigns, mass meetings were held by each party, for which the great political orators of the parties were secured. On such occasions the village was filled with the respective adherents, and flags were everywhere, with a great noise that could be heard a mile off—as I once tested it—and The Hon. Will Allen, a great man who could make himself heard who was said to be the only man against a noisy locomotive whistle, the Hon. S. S. Cox, a distinguished and most charming gentleman, and others, represented the Democrats. Hon. Thomas Edwin was a favorite with the Whites and Republicans. He once addressed the party friends from the steps of the stone wall on West Main street, then known as the Berkley property. Hon. William Behl, former Governor of Ohio, was in great demand. He was one of the finest political speakers I ever heard. Other great men addressed these mass meetings, and confirmed the opinions the hearers had before.

I was of age early in 1848. I voted three times that year, at the April, October and November elections. I could not possibly make you believe how important I felt over the fact. I was an elector! I could make my political opinions count at the polls! I once heard a well known man say (of course he did not really mean it) "that he did not regard the privilege of voting as at all great, and he would at any time, sell his vote for twenty-five cents." I then put the value of the privilege as very great. (To be continued.)

J. N. Milburn Interested in Kibler Articles Makes Few Observations Himself on Subject.

(By J. N. Milburn.)

Pataaskata, O., Feb. 4.—I am deeply interested in reading Colonel Kibler's "Earlier Newark." Will you find room in the Advocate to print what I know of early Newark? I think the Colonel is mistaken in saying that the Advocate took its name Advocate at the time it was founded in 1820. If not, there was another paper about that time called the Licking Herald. My father, Andrew Milburn, was a subscriber to said paper in the forties, up to 1850. He received his mail at the village of Fredonia. I was a lad then beginning to read and it was the first newspaper I had seen up to that time. In the days of slavery politics, as now, between two opposing papers, became hot. The American was called the North American and it would give the Advocate the sobriquet of Adversary and in turn the Advocate would call it the North African. In the latter part of the fifties, the late Captain John H. Putnam founded the paper called the "Voice of the People." It was published until in the summer of 1861. He sold out to the Advocate, recruited a company to help in the civil war of three years. The writer was one of the members of Co. H, 21st O. V. I.

The Colonel in speaking of the hotels in Newark, omitted in writing about the old "Ohio House," which stood on the corner just west of Smucker's livery stable. It was kept a great many years by a man they called "Honest John." During the Civil war it was kept by a Mr. Black.

I was a boy of about thirteen when I first saw Newark about 1850. I went with my father, who had come from the western part of McKean township, to the old distillery, which stood down on East Main street, sold it for 16 cents per bushel to raise money to pay taxes, and had to take half of the amount in dry goods. They would give him an order on the store which stood near where the Hotel Warden is now. The purchasing power of a dollar then was equal to two dollars.

The Bird Reception at Edmiston's is in full blast. One of the most fascinating exhibitions that was ever in Newark. Come in and see the birds and learn all about them.
